This stunning beachfront resort has a very convenient location in Nusa Lembongan, a stoneâ€™s throw away from the drop-off point in Mushroom Bay. Direct beach access and overlooking the turquoise blue waters.

Facing the Badung Strait the resort puts you in the VIP seat to catch the brilliant sunrise and the magnificent sunset, all with the backdrop of the Bali Island and the Majestic Mount Agung volcano all from the comfort of the spacious pool, comfy lounge and beach bar.

15 Beautifully designed traditional wooden house buildings by master craftsman and architects from Bali, Java, and France.

The beautiful resort was designed and developed by a multicultural team, bringing the best of their skills and knowledge for this perfect beachfront paradise.

The Unique Bungalows are made of timber and refurbished woods, combining all-white aesthetic for the interior and exterior with recycled driftwood, and Balinese carvings in the details, while keeping the overall chill beach vibe. Each room is Air-Conditioned, fitted with wooden flooring and seating area, with private showers.

The Restaurant is located right by the shore and allows for a range of dining experiences, from nibbling the light bites in the beanbags to casual dining from the carefully created menu of Western comfort foods and Indonesian Delights!
