Spectacularly located amid the rice fields and verdant valleys of Bali's lush interior lies this luxury villa, a harmonious blend of cutting-edge design and lavish comfort less than 10 minutes south west of Ubud.

This beautiful villa offers 180 degree views of stunning valleys and rice fields that make choosing Ubud an easy decision. Be part of nature and experience total relaxation overlooking an ocean of verdant rice fields with volcanic Mount Batukaru rising to the north west.

Each of the villa's four tastefully appointed rooms features a king-size bed, spacious bathroom and a host of luxurious amenities with two suites featuring amazing solid stone soaker tubs built for two. The main building boasts a living room with 55" LED TV, surround sound, free WiFi, bonus multi-purpose room with 47" LED TV, two Bale Bengongs (day beds) with traditional Alang-Alang thatched roof, gourmet kitchen, solid teak dining table for 8, barbecue, massage/yoga deck and 14 m sparkling swimming pool with kids area.

Everywhere at the villa you are surrounded by the textures and colour of nature, cool marble floors, granite, solid teak counter tops, smooth unpainted wood, soft natural fabrics, fragrant Alang-Alang grass roofing, tough cut stone, flowers and foliage.

Constructed in typical Balinese style and blending beautifully with the natural surroundings it is amazing how cleverly luxury has been wrapped in this setting. Come and view it for yourself!
